CORE ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES:

Teaching and Curriculum Development:

I have over 20 years of university teaching experience (between the University of Pretoria and the University of the Witwatersrand). At the Wits School of Law, I have mostly taught constitutional and human rights law, in various iterations, at undergraduate (LLB) and Masters (LLM) level. Through the years, this has from time to time been supplemented by private law teaching, notably in fields of health law, family law and property law; as well as by guest lectures on health-related aspects of constitutional and human rights law in the Wits Faculty of Health Sciences.

Details of subjects taught are available on request

During my years at the University of the Witwatersrand, I have developed and modified curricula, at LLM and LLB level, in various subjects (including health law, human rights law and constitutional law). I have also provided LLB curriculum review advice to the University of Pretoria Faculty of Law (2008) and assisted Monash University: South Africa with the development of a constitutional law curriculum (2017).

Research Supervision:

I have supervised the following PhDs to completion:

- Deeksha Bhana Constitutionalizing Contract Law: Ideology, Judicial Method and Contractual Autonomy (graduated July 2013).
- Redson Kapindu Towards the Full Realisation of Socio-economic Rights of Refugees: Challenges and prospects for Southern Africa (co-supervised with J Klaaren) (graduated April 2014).

- Paul Wayburne Developing a Constitutional Law Paradigm for a National Health Insurance Scheme in South Africa (graduated July 2014).
- Phiona Mphanga Conceptualising, Realising and Enforcing a Right to Water for Uganda: Comparative Perspectives (graduated July 2015).
- Eric Makoni Law, Spatial Planning and the Making of South African Cities (graduated July 2020).
- Stuart Wilson The Law of Dispossession: Property Law, Power and Social Change (graduated July 2020).
- Young Jae Kim At the Crossroads of Human Rights Law, International Development Law and International Investment Law – Reflection on the Right to Development in the Exercise of Expropriation (graduated July 2021).
- Elizabeth Power Giving Effect to the Right of Participatory Democracy in the Area of Socio-economic Rights (graduated December 2021).

In addition, I have supervised a substantial number of LLM by coursework research reports, and LLB research reports, to completion.

I am currently supervising 7 PhD theses, on topics including social cohesion through urban governance; urban governance and heritage protection; governance of special economic zones in Africa; intra-municipal cooperative governance structures; housing typologies and standards; housing-related responsibilities of local government; and constitutional intervention powers in dysfunctional municipalities.

Details of past and current supervision at all levels, as well as a list of student publications resulting from supervised work, are available on request.

Administration & Academic Citizenship:

I am the chairperson of the postgraduate studies committee at the School of Law at the University of the Witwatersrand, as well as a member of the School's Executive Committee, from 1 January until 30 June 2022.

I was the assistant dean of research in the Faculty Commerce, Law and Management at the University of the Witwatersrand from 2007-2011. In this capacity, I chaired the Faculty's Research Committee and served also on the University Research Committee (URC), the Faculty Executive Committee as well as on the Executive Committee of the URC.

Through the years, I have been involved in the activities of several running committees in the School of Law. Notably, I have been a member of its management/executive committee in 2001-2002, 2011, 2013 and 2016-2017 and a member of its postgraduate studies committee in 2008, 2012-2017 and 2019-2020. I served as the chair of the School's Admissions Committee from 2001-2003 and as its research advisor from 2003-2006. In the Faculty of Commerce Law and Management, I have served on the research committee and on various ad hoc committees such as quinquennial review committees. I have also been a member of high-profile central university committees including the Wits 2001 Review Committee (2008-2011) and the Council SRC Constitutional Review Task Team (2006). I was chairperson of the quinquennial review of the Wits School of Mathematics in 2016. I have been a member of the University Senate since 2008.

Details of academic citizenship activities are available on request.

CONSULTATION AND ADVISORY WORK:

I often collaborate with organisations in an advisory capacity, and am regularly invited to participate in expert meetings, serve on advisory boards and suchlike. Over the years, I have interacted in this manner with international organisations, national, provincial and local government departments, organised local government, academic units, applied research organisations and NGOs. I also do research-related consultancy work (including legislative/regulatory drafting) for a similar broad range of entities. Some recent, high-profile interactions of this kind are:

- Participated in UN Habitat virtual Expert General Meeting on Urban Governance (hosted from Nairobi, 27-28 April 2021).
- Participated in virtual expert group meeting on “Inclusive Cities” co-organised by UN Habitat, the Geneva Human Rights Platform of the Geneva Academy and the Geneva Cities Hub in coordination with the office of the UN High-Commissioner for Human Rights (hosted from Geneva, 5-6 May 2020).
- Member of South African National Department of Human Settlements Policy and Legislative Review Task Team (POLERT) (2018-2021).
- Member of South African Local Government Association (SALGA) project steering committee: “Creating a supportive regulatory environment for the informal sector - improving regulatory tools and practise in local government” (2020).
- Member of research team contracted by Gauteng Provincial Government and South African Cities Network to produce research on legal instruments for enabling and unlocking township economies (2019-2020).
- Member of review panel for South African National Treasury Local Government Budget and Expenditure Review (July 2019).
- Participated in UN Habitat Urban Legislation Unit Expert Group Meeting (strategic planning for Urban Legislation Unit and review of Planning Law Assessment Framework) (Stockholm, 6-8 December 2017).

A comprehensive list of advisory and consultancy work is available on request.

ACADEMIC COLLABORATION AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT:

I am an active participant in the research/policy development community around urban governance, constitutionalism and human rights.

Selected Highlights:

- Co-organised and moderated panel for the CLES / UN Habitat / Wits School of Law Urban Law Day entitled Rebuilding a More Just, Climate Resilient and Equitable Urban Future for All: The Role of Law, held online, 28 October 2021.

- Member of the Association of Urban Legal Scholars (AULS) (2021 onwards)

RESEARCH AND PUBLICATIONS:

I am the author of two sole-authored academic monographs as well as of more than 60 peer-reviewed academic journal articles or book chapters. I have also published working papers, op-eds and blog posts on various topics relating to urban governance, constitutionalism and human rights. My research is predominantly desk-based but I am also familiar and comfortable with both qualitative and quantitative research methodologies.
